Rights & Rules Governing Registration with The Art Loss Register ('ALR')

1. The Service

Subject to its right to withdraw any listing, the service provided by ALR under this agreement is to register the Object(s) and the information provided herein and other than this registration, no warranties, promises or undertakings are being made to the Owner through this Agreement. At the same time ALR will use its best efforts to respond to requests for information. However, ALR shall have no liability or responsibility of any kind, nature or description to the Owner or any heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the Owner for any act or omission of ALR.

2. Discretion to Register

ALR has the right at all times to determine in its sole discretion whether any object shall be included in the Register. Accordingly ALR may decline to register or delete a registration for any reason.

3. Recovery Service Fee and Costs

Either party shall promptly notify the other in the event that any recovery of the Object(s) occurs. In the event of any recovery of an Object(s) where ALR has played a role, ALR shall be entitled to a recovery service fee based on the fair market value of the Object(s) at the time of recovery. In the event that the Owner recovers property which was not registered but nevertheless recovered by or identified by the Owner as a consequence of efforts and/or information from ALR, a recovery service fee shall also be paid to ALR by the Owner. The fee, which shall be paid to ALR within thirty days from the determination of the fair market value, shall be calculated as follows: fifteen percent (15%) of the first $75,000 in value plus ten percent (10%) of any value in excess of $75,000. This obligation to pay a recovery service fee based on the fair market value of the Object or property at the time of recovery shall not be affected or altered by any post-recovery disposition of the Object or property or by any events or agreements occurring prior to recovery. Accordingly, in the event of any recovery from which a recovery service fee is due to ALR, the Owner grants ALR a security interest in the Object to the extent of or for the amount of the recovery service fee. In addition to this fee, if ALR has incurred any costs or made any expenditures directly in connection with any successful recovery of an Object (such as by way of example, packing, transportation, insurance, rewards or appraisals), the Owner will reimburse ALR for such costs or expenditures.

4. Fair Market Value

ALR will promptly seek a qualified appraisal of the fair market value of any recovered Object or property as of the date of recovery and the Owner agrees to co-operate and respond to reasonable requests for pertinent information. ALR will submit this appraisal to the Owner. Within thirty days the Owner will accept or contest this appraisal and a failure to respond will be deemed an acceptance of the appraisal and an account stated for the recovery service fee based on that appraisal. Timely written notice is required to contest the appraisal submitted by ALR, and in such event, the parties will jointly apply to the Appraisers Association of America for an appraisal. The cost of this procedure shall be charged to the Owner and the determination of the Appraisers Association of America shall be conclusively binding on both parties. The recovery service fee shall be payable fifteen days from receipt of this final determination and shall constitute an account stated for this amount.

5. Indemnity

The Owner agrees to indemnify and hold ALR harmless from any claim or expense whatsoever (including reasonable legal fees in defending any such claim against ALR) arising out of or relating to the use of information contained in the Register by a third party where such information has been made available to that third party by the Owner or at the request of the Owner.

6. Arbitration/Applicable Law

Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this agreement shall be submitted to arbitration in New York, New York in accordance with the Rules, then obtaining, of the American Arbitration Association. The fees of the arbitrators and of the American Arbitration Association, as the case may be, shall be advanced equally by the parties during the arbitration and chargeable against the non-prevailing party at the conclusion of the arbitration. Any award concurred in by a majority of the arbitrators or rendered by the sole arbitrator (as the case may be) shall be binding and conclusive on the parties; and a judgement thereon may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The performance and application of this Registration Agreement and the rights and obligation of the Owner and ALR shall be governed exclusively by the laws of the State of New York.
