

Welcome to the National Watch & Clock Museum, which contains the largest collection of timepieces in North America.

For your safety, and the safety of other visitors, volunteers, and staff, please read the following restrictions, sign the waiver, and follow all instructions provided by museum staff during your stay.

Anyone not adhering to these safety precautions will be asked to leave the premises.

- ❖ All visitors will have their temperature taken before entering. Anyone with a reading above the guidelines of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or the CDC will not be permitted to enter.
- ❖ Please postpone your visit if you are feeling unwell or have had contact with someone who tested positive for COVID-19 in the last 14 days.
- ❖ Face masks must be worn properly at all times.
- ❖ Be mindful to follow all directional signage, including designated entrances and exits.
- ❖ Please use the hand sanitizer located at the entrance and throughout the galleries.
- ❖ Maintain a minimum distance of 6 feet from museum staff and other visitors.
- ❖ Please do not touch the exhibits and display cases.

By entering the National Watch & Clock Museum, you and any guests voluntarily assume all risks, including exposure to COVID-19 and other infectious diseases, and further agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the National Association of Watch & Clock Collectors, Inc., and its officers, directors, agents, contractors, employees, members, and volunteers from and against any and all illness, injury, demands, claims, damages to persons or property, losses, and liabilities, including reasonable attorneys' fees arising out of or caused by attending any and all activities associated with your visit.
