Pumpkins & Pendulums Family Event at the National Watch & Clock Museum on October 25

October 2, 2025

Columbia, Lancaster County – The National Watch & Clock Museum is holding its annual family-friendly Pumpkins & Pendulums event on October 25 from 12:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the museum in Columbia, PA.

The museum is home to North America's largest collection of clocks, pocket watches, and wristwatches from around the world and throughout the centuries. The museum will be decked out for Halloween fun, with festive decorations and displays throughout the exhibits. There will be themed games, crafts, and story time, plus food trucks, door prizes, and trick-or-treating in the museum. Kids and grown-ups alike are encouraged to wear costumes.

Columbia Public Library staff will read spooky children's stories. Special guest Create Columbia will host a pumpkin-decorating station.

Tickets are free for kids 5 and under; $5 for youth ages 6-17; $15 for adults; and $10 for seniors. A family package is available for $30 (2 adults with 2 or more kids). Tickets may be purchased at the door.

The National Watch & Clock Museum houses approximately 13,000 amazing timepieces and related artifacts. The museum is run by the nonprofit National Association of Watch & Clock Collectors, Inc., a member organization that also runs the School of Horology and Library & Research Center in Columbia.

The museum is located at 514 Poplar St., Columbia, and is open to the public Tuesday—Thursday and Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and Friday and Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. For more information, visit museum.nawcc.org or call 717-684-8261.
